Important Information

The primary objective of Touching Lives for Christ is to further the gospel of Jesus Christ. We will also attempt to arrange some sight-seeing time, but this must coincide with the team's main purpose. It is understood that these activities may be cancelled if it is not convenient for travel time or if it hinders the ministry of the team.

Trip details - travel costs and arrangements, dates, and schedules - are subject to change. Teams may be switched in the event of any crisis - political, natural, or mission related. You will receive more specific financial information upon registration.

In the event of political unrest, natural disaster, or a problem with the hosting mission, TLC will decide if and where to send a team. In the event that a team is cancelled for any reason, team members will have an option to be assigned to another team. We will work with you for the satisfaction of everyone involved.

TLC is a highly disciplined organization with specific guidelines concerning conduct, dress, and Christian testimony. These are explained more fully in the Summer Missionary Trip guidelines and in other information supplied upon registration.

Team members and leaders must adhere strictly to TLC policies and are subject to dismissal for disobedience – without refund or reimbursement. Team members and leaders serve at their own risk and neither TLC nor Hobe Sound Bible Church is liable in the event of sickness, accident, death, or terrorist acts, or for transportation - or any other expense beyond that of the normal team involvement.

I have read and agree to the specific limitations listed above
